THE SEASON OF LENT

The season of Lent is a time of prayer, fasting and self-examination in preparation for the celebration of the resurrection of the Lord at Easter. It is a period of 40 days — like the flood of Genesis, Moses’ sojourn at Mount Sinai, Elijah’s journey to Mount Horeb, Jonah’s call to Ninevah to repent and Jesus’ time of testing in the wilderness. (The Sundays in Lent are not counted in this reckoning of the time between Ash Wednesday and Easter, as every Lord’s Day is a celebration of the resurrection of Jesus Christ.)

In the early church, Lent was a time of preparation for the celebration of baptism at the Easter Vigil. In many communities of faith it remains a time to equip and nurture candidates for baptism and confirmation and to reflect deeply on the theme of baptismal discipleship.

A TIME TO TURN

The Lenten journey from the ashes of death to resurrected life begins on the first day of Lent, Ash Wednesday, which signifies a time to turn around, to change directions, to repent. This first day of Lent reminds us that unless we are willing to die to our old selves, we cannot be raised to new life with Christ. The first step of this journey calls us to acknowledge and confront our mortality, individually and corporately. In many traditions, this is symbolized through the imposition of ashes — placing a cross on one’s forehead. During the imposition of ashes the words: “You are dust, and to dust you shall return” (Genesis 3:19) are repeated again and again. We are to remember that we are but temporary creatures, always on the edge of death. On Ash Wednesday, we begin our Lenten trek through the desert toward Easter. Ashes on the forehead is a sign of our humanity and a reminder of our mortality. Lent is not a matter of being good, and wearing ashes is not to show off one’s faith.

The ashes are a reminder to us and our communities of our finite creatureliness. The ashes we wear on our Lenten journey symbolize the dust and broken debris of our lives as well as the reality that eventually each of us will die. Trusting in the “accomplished fact” of Christ’s resurrection, however, we listen for the Word of God in the time-honored stories of the church’s Lenten journey. We follow Jesus into the wilderness, resist temptation, fast, and proceed “on the way” to Jerusalem and the cross. Our Lenten journey is one of metanoia (“turning around”), of changing directions from self-serving toward the self-giving way of the cross.

PRELUDE

O Sacred Head, Now Wounded

M. Hayes
(b. 1953)

THE GREETING

At the sound of the bells, please prepare your heart and mind for worship.

INTROIT

When Jesus Wept

W. Billings
(1746-1800)

*When Jesus wept the falling tear in mercy flowed beyond all bound;
When Jesus groaned, a trembling fear
Seized all the guilty world around.*

*CALL TO WORSHIP

O Lord, open my lips,

and my mouth will declare your praise.

For you have no delight in sacrifice; if I were to give a burnt offering,

you would not be pleased.

The sacrifice acceptable to God is a broken spirit;

a broken and contrite heart, O God, you will not despise.

*UNISON PRAYER OF INVOCATION

Gracious God, you breathed your life into the dust of the earth, creating us in your image to love and serve others. Animate our worship with that same breath, that as we confront the darkness of the world, we may fix our eyes on your eternal promise, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

*HYMN 165

The Glory of These Forty Days

Erhalt Uns, Herr

LITANY OF CONFESSION

Holy and merciful God, we confess to you and to one another, and to the whole communion of saints in heaven and on earth, that we have sinned by our own fault in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone.

We have not loved you with our whole heart, and mind, and strength. We have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We have not forgiven others as we have been forgiven.

Have mercy on us, O God. We have not listened to your call to serve as Christ served us. We have not been true to the mind of Christ. We have grieved your Holy Spirit.

Have mercy on us, O God.

The Call to Worship is from Psalm 51.

Hymn 165 Note:

Appropriate for singing at any time during Lent, this stately text connects Jesus' wilderness fast with the solitary testing of other prophetic souls: Moses, Elijah, Daniel, and John the Baptist. This sturdy 16th-century chorale melody formed the basis of Bach's Cantata 126.

The Litany of Confession is from the PC(USA) Book of Common Worship

*Where you see this notation, please rise in body or in spirit.

We confess to you, O God, all our past unfaithfulness: The pride, hypocrisy, and impatience in our lives,

we confess to you, O God.

Our self-indulgent appetites and ways and our exploitation of other people,

we confess to you, O God.

Our anger at our own frustration and our envy of those more fortunate than ourselves,

we confess to you, O God.

Our intemperate love of worldly goods and comforts, and our dishonesty in daily life and work,

we confess to you, O God.

Our negligence in prayer and worship, and our failure to commend the faith that is in us,

we confess to you, O God.

Accept our repentance, O God, for the wrongs we have done. For our neglect of human need and suffering and our indifference to injustice and cruelty,

accept our repentance, O God.

For all false judgments, for uncharitable thoughts toward our neighbors, and for our prejudice and contempt toward those who differ from us,

accept our repentance, O God.

For our waste and pollution of your creation and our lack of concern for those who come after us,

accept our repentance, O God.

Restore us, O God, and let your anger depart from us.

Favorably hear us, O God, for your mercy is great.

Amen.

SILENT MEDITATION

RESPONSE OF PRAISE

What Wondrous Love Is This

Wondrous Love

What wondrous love is this, O my soul, O my soul, what wondrous love is this, O my soul!

to bear the dreadful curse for my soul, for my soul,
to bear the dreadful curse for my soul.

PRAYER FOR ILLUMINATION

ANTHEM

Create in me a clean heart, O God

C. F. Mueller
(1892-1982)

*Create in me a clean heart, O God;
And renew a right spirit within me.
Cast me not away from thy presence;
And take not thy holy spirit from me.*

*Restore unto me the joy of thy salvation;
And uphold me with thy free spirit.*

*Then will I teach transgressors thy ways;
And sinners shall be converted unto thee.*

Create in me a clean heart, O God!

SCRIPTURE LESSON

Matthew 6: 1-6, 16-21

NRSVUE

<sup>1</sup> “Beware of practicing your righteousness before others in order to be seen by them, for then you have no reward from your Father in heaven.

<sup>2</sup> “So whenever you give alms, do not sound a trumpet before you, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, so that they may be praised by others. Truly I tell you, they have received their reward. <sup>3</sup> But when you give alms, do not let your left hand know what your right hand is doing, <sup>4</sup> so that your alms may be done in secret, and your Father who sees in secret will reward you.

<sup>5</sup> “And whenever you pray, do not be like the hypocrites, for they love to stand and pray in the synagogues and at the street corners, so that they may be seen by others. Truly I tell you, they have received their reward. <sup>6</sup> But whenever you pray, go into your room and shut the door and pray to your Father who is in secret, and your Father who sees in secret will reward you.

<sup>16</sup> “And whenever you fast, do not look somber, like the hypocrites, for they mark their faces to show others that they are fasting. Truly I tell you, they have received their reward. <sup>17</sup> But when you fast, put oil on your head and wash your face, <sup>18</sup> so that your fasting may be seen not by others but by your Father who is in secret, and your Father who sees in secret will reward you.

<sup>19</sup> “Do not store up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and rust consume and where thieves break in and steal, <sup>20</sup> but store up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust consumes and where thieves do not break in and steal. <sup>21</sup> For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.

This is the Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

COMMUNION AND IMPOSITION OF ASHES

INVITATION TO THE TABLE

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

It is right indeed, it is our joy and our salvation, holy Lord, almighty Father, everlasting God, at all times and in all places to give you thanks and praise through Christ your only Son.

Hymn 166 Note:

Like many of this author's hymns, this text was written primarily for children but works equally well in reminding adults how Lent connects us with Christ's temptation in the wilderness and prepares us for Easter. The 16th-century English psalm tune provides sturdy support.

“The Great Thanksgiving” adapted from A New Zealand Prayer Book, Harper One, 1997.

You are the source of all life and goodness; through your eternal Word you have created all things from the beginning and formed us in your own image; male and female you created us.

When we sinned and turned away you called us back to yourself and gave your Son to share our human nature. By His death on the cross, he made the one perfect sacrifice for the sin of the world and freed us from the bondage of sin. You raised him to life triumphant over death; you exalted him in glory. In him you have made us a holy people by sending upon us your holy and lifegiving Spirit.

Therefore with the faithful who rest in him, with angels and archangels and all the company of heaven, we proclaim your great and glorious name:

Holy, Holy, Holy

Schubert

(All sing together)

Holy, holy, holy, Lord. God of power and might.
Holy, holy, holy, Lord. God of power and might.
Heaven and earth are full, full of your glory;
Hosanna in the highest, Hosanna in the highest.
Heaven and earth are full, full of your glory;
Hosanna in the highest, Hosanna in the highest.

Recalling your great goodness to us, loving God, in Jesus Christ: in his suffering and death, his resurrection and ascension, and looking for his coming in glory, we celebrate our redemption with this bread of life and this cup of salvation.

Accept our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving which we offer through Christ our great high priest.

Send your Holy Spirit that these gifts of bread and wine which we receive may be to us the body and blood of Christ, and that we, filled with the Spirit's grace and power, may be renewed for the service of your kingdom.

United in Christ with all who stand before you in earth and heaven, we worship you, O God, in songs of everlasting praise. Blessing, honor, and glory be yours, here and everywhere, now and forever. Amen.*

PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING AND THE LORD'S PRAYER

The Lord's Prayer:

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

Hymn 792 Note:

This lauda spirituale, a kind of vernacular Italian sacred song from the late Middle Ages and Renaissance, was translated into English in the 19th century but received little notice until this tune (named for the composer's birthplace) was created for The English Hymnal.

Announcements

• A congregational meeting is called for Sunday, February 18, 2024, immediately following Worship, for the purpose of receiving the 2023 annual financial report and the 2023 annual report of the activities of the church.

• All are welcome each Monday at noon in Hollis Hall for Soup & Scripture. The Sermon on the Mount, Matthew 5-7, contains some of Jesus' most profound and memorable teachings. During Lent, we will explore these unique teachings using Sermon on the Mount: A Beginner's Guide to the Kingdom of Heaven by noted author and scholar Dr. Amy-Jill Levine. Join us and the discussion!

• Beginning today and continuing throughout Lent, the Christian Education Team invites members of our congregation to write a brief, one page reflection on some aspect of Lent. What does it mean to you personally? It could be a practice you engage in, a prayer, a passage of scripture, a meaningful hymn, or spiritual reflection (your own or perhaps a favorite author's.) It could also be a discipline you and your family observe yearly or a new discipline you decide to take on this year. Your reflections will be posted daily to our Facebook FPC Dalton Connect page - #LentenReflections2024. Please send your submissions to Jean Strain at jstrain@firstpresdalton.org.

• This year we invite you to give to "One Great Hour of Sharing"—a denomination-wide mission effort that raises money for Presbyterian Disaster Assistance, hunger programs, and cooperative development work with communities experiencing poverty around the world. Make a gift through the website or leave a check with "One Great Hour of Sharing" in the memo line. We will receive collections for this special offering through Easter.

• On Saturday, February 24 at 7:00 p.m., The DEO Clinic, in partnership with FPC, is hosting a concert featuring Pam Gadd, Irene Kelly and Brennan Leigh - 3 talented singer songwriters - who will be sharing their individual songs. These ladies have had songs recorded by a Who's Who list of artists. Please contact the church office if you are interested in volunteering. Go to <http://woodsongsdalton.com> for ticket information.
